2016 Lauze Châteauneuf du Pape

This is a breakout vintage for Comte de Lauze because the 2016 Chateauneuf du Pape looked impressive in this year's blind tasting. Peppery and floral up front, it reveals layers of supple raspberry, apricot and chocolate on the full-bodied palate, backed with rich tannings and a chewy finish. It should come into its prime drinking window within a couple of years, and stay there for a decade and a half.
